3.4.1. Extension activities are carried out in the neighbor hood community, sensitizing students to social issues, for their holistic development, and impact thereof during the last five years.

Describe the impact of extension activities in sensitizing students to social issues and holistic development within a maximum of 500 words.

Response:

By solving the problems in the society, the nation is moving towards progress. 26 percent of the youth population of the society is working in higher education today. With 26 percent of the youth in education, it is very important to make them aware of the social issues facing the country and to plan and discuss solutions to solve the issues from the awareness of these issues. As we are looking at the research process, if the research question is clear, then the solution is found and through that solution, the problem can be overcome.

For example, when James Wyatt wondered why the lid of the kettle blew off, like people started running on steam power, if the students start to understand the problems facing the society clearly, the nation can develop from the understanding of those questions. The current issues facing the country like Gender issue, Female Feticide, Farmer suicide, Declining ratio of higher education in Buldhana district, Cyber security and measures, poverty and unsanitary etc. problems are seen in the villages and districts, of college area, students are made aware of such issues and to solve such issues every year, various programs are organized by NSS, NCC units. Regarding the gender issue, 1872 Tarabai Shinde, who commented on the gender issue in those days when it was quite difficult and challenging, so Buldhana was came to be known as an active district in the field of feminism.

So the measures given by her on this question become important after one and a half centuries, so a program is organized for the college youth. As the majority of the students studying in the college are from farmers' families, discussions are also held on various problems in agriculture, and solutions are helped through such discussions. The coordinator of Taluka Hospital and District General Hospital Dr. Kambal madam is in constant contact with the students and implements activities in the tehsil with the help of students for public awareness. In Buldhana district, it is very demanding in the National Education Ratio. To increase the ratio in higher education, college professors go to villages and conduct awareness programs for the 12th passed students and also try to increase the ratio of academic higher education through parent contact. In order to increase the birth rate of girls, Buldhana district is lagging behind in the birth rate of Girls. The College has also been actively involved in (Save girl) Aamchi Moolgi campaign. In short, for the development of the society, the work of awakening and awareness of is done by the college.
