Teaching and the appearance of its result in the form of joy and satisfaction on students' faces is the real reward for teachers. Although the number of students who appear in the merit list of the university is not very high, the fact that students appear in the merit list is a kind of award for college education. The teachers and students who are continuously working in the field of sports, social sector and education are honored with state national level awards. Shikshan Prasarak Mandal organizes personality development workshop for the employees every year in this workshop select few teachers are awarded as outstanding teachers. For the teachers who do special work in the college, the staff academy is honored in the presence of the president and secretary. This honor includes the Shawl Shreephala insignia. Ku. Anuradha Pandhari Solanki, a former student of the college, has received the Shiv Chhatrapati State Sports Award in the Government of Maharashtra, State Sports Award recently announced by the state government.

The form of award is fifty thousand rupees in cash, a badge of honor. Earlier also, this highest Shiv Chhatrapati Outstanding Athlete Award in the field of sports has been awarded to two female students of the college. This includes Ku. Sushma Kamble and Ku. Aruna Deshmukh. District level award for best writing Prof.Dr. Kedar Tosar has got it. While the award of social organization in Pune for social work, Professor Dr. Praful Gavai has received. Awarded for Best Research Paper Presentation in National Conference in April 2019 Prof. Dr. Pradip Barad has received. It is also a matter of honor for the college that the students of the sports department participate in the inter-college and inter-varsity competitions in the sport of ball badminton at the national level every year. Although no cash awards are given by the college, the faculty is seen as a leader in participation in national and international conferences, national and international level writing and book publications as teachers are encouraged.
